INTRODUCTION

My Father Peter Imhoff was born in Switzerland July 4, 1806. His father died when he was seven years old, so his Mother (her maiden name was Nusbaum) was left alone with her family. My father was the youngest. They had no home of their own and just rented along the mountains where the rent was cheaper.

I could not tell the name of the nearest village, (Dorf they called it) where a good many farmers lived and had farm land around the villages. Some only a few acres that they would farm. As near as I can tell they had about 20 miles more or less, from the neighborhood where they lived to the city of Bern (the capital of Switzerland) but which direction I could not tell.

He was 18 years old when he came to this country. It was on July 4th, 1824 his birthday when they landed in New York. He and his oldest brother John came together. They walked between four and five hundred miles to Paris where they took the boat on a river to Havre at the ocean. He said he saw more danger on the river than on the ocean. They were on the ocean forty days, if I am not mistaken. Often being blown back as far as they traveled that day.

His brother Theodore and Jacob came over a year or more before. Theodore got married in Pennsylvania and lived there several years, but John and Jacob came to Ohio single and married out here. John settled in Ashland County on the farm where the old graveyard is. But Jacob went to De Kalb County, Indiana and married out there where he lived and died a few years before we moved to Wayne County in 1892. Father stayed in Pennsylvania and worked there on a farm three years, for $6.00 a month the year round. Then he came out here afoot carrying all he had. By that time Theodore had moved out to Ashland County as two of his brothers and several of his cousins, Nusbaums lived in Ashland County. But then he saw that he did not have enough money to buy a farm yet, so he traveled back to Pennsylvania again afoot and worked two more years on the same farm, before he came here to buy a home. So he traveled the road three times across or over the mountains afoot carrying all he owned. He did not carry a suit case like we have today but he carried a wooden box one yard long and one foot square, this was covered with deer hide. In it he carried a prayer book printed in 1796 called Earnest Christian Faith and Prayer Book.

At that time they could not sit in an auto or Pullman car by railway like we can today. Then he bought 80 A., the old homestead where we all were raised on, from Stoner that is Jacob and John's father. They lived where John Stoner is living now. He bought it for $400.00 but had only $200.00 to pay on it. So he cleared 40 A. for Stoner on the farm where they lived, for the other $200.00. That would be $5.00 an acre ready for the plow. The small trees like dog wood, iron wood and other small trees up to a certain size he had to dig out of the root, then the larger trees like maple, beech, and hickory and small oak he had to cut down and clean everything up and burn the brush. The larger trees like the large oak, poplar, and walnut he had to deaden by cutting the bark clear round the trees. The very nicest splitting trees he used for rails. As he was to fence the 40 A. in five and eight A. fields. Split the rails and build the fence, so he had to do all that before he started to clear on his own farm.

It might also be interesting to you to have a short history of my mother. Her maiden name was Elizabeth Pletcher. Her parents moved from Pennsylvania, Centre County A. D. 1820 to Crawford County, Ohio, about three miles from Galion, when mother was six or seven years old, on the farm where Cousin Henry Pletcher and Cousin Mary Crim are living now.

Galion was but a small town at that time—only a few houses, a grocery, blacksmith shop, and a tavern, a lodging place for the travelers. Mansfield was about the same. A small tavern at the place where the large hotel stands now, called the Wiler House. If I am not mistaken it was kept by Wilers at that time.

There were plenty of Indians there yet at that time but they did not molest if they were not aggravated. They had a home now that did not cost them much, but they had to work hard to clear enough land to raise something to eat and live on. It is surprising to think what a change the last hundred years have brought forth. The next question, What will the next century bring forth?

FOREWORD

Descendants of Peter Imhoff

This history of the descendants of Peter Imhoff and wife Elizabeth Pletcher although far from being complete in some families, was collected for giving pleasure and information to this and future generations. It has been much pleasure and information to us in collecting these records. May we ever bear in mind that our ancestors' way of life was simple and God fearing which is a goodly heritage for all, and hope it may not be lost in the coming years.

Wish to thank all who have so kindly helped in getting these records together.

Sincerely,
Rufus Imhoff and daughters
